

Cher's New Hollywood Home

AD 100
Designers Do
Private Homes In:

New York
 Missouri
 Connecticut
 Florida
 New Mexico
 Virginia
 California &
 Hawaii

www.ArchitecturalDigest.com

AS SEEN AT THE ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST
 HOME DESIGN SHOW IN NEW YORK CITY

ARTISAN

- 1. MICHAEL CURRY MOSAICS
 Using innovative techniques that accentuate the interaction between glass and light, Michael Curry creates custom wall sculptures for commercial and residential environments. These mosaics offer hypnotic appeal, melding both color and shape. Shown: "Meld," three 16" x 28" mirror panels. Call 917.450.7733 or visit michaelcurrymosaics.com
- 2. ROUGH EDGES DESIGN
 Inspired by the watchtowers of Italy, artisan Mona Hoffman crafts limited-production concrete table lamps. Featuring architectural details reminiscent of ancient structures, each piece has its own unique characteristics. Available with a black or cream paper shade. Call 812.630.0787 or visit roughedgesdesign.com
- 3. JOAN IRVING GLASS DESIGN
 An internationally acclaimed glass artist, Joan Irving is known for custom residential sculpture as well as large public works of art. Collectors love her bold designs that explode with color and imagery, such as this Flaming Glass Chair. Call 760.735.8890 or visit joanirving.com
- 4. ART BEYOND BORDERS
 A fresh take on an ancient art form: hand-woven contemporary tapestries from Kazakhstan by acclaimed textile artists Alibay & Saule Bapanov. Choose from a broad range of one-of-a-kind masterpieces, or commission your own design. Exclusively at ART beyond borders. Call 914.713.4494 or visit artbeyondborders.com
- 5. STUDIO ROEPER
 A passionate designer and accomplished craftsman, Florian Roeper creates limited production lines of luxury furniture and interior doors. The combination of materials such as etched metal, leather, gold leaf and unusual salvaged California hardwoods give Studio Roeper pieces their distinct character. Warm. Timeless. Exclusive. Call 415.216.5714 or visit studioroeper.com
- 6.