ART & OBJETS D'ART

1 MICHAEL CURRY MOSAICS

Using innovative techniques that accentuate the interaction between glass and light, Michael Curry creates custom-made wall sculptures for commercial and residential environments. Incorporating dichroic materials, these mosaic sculptures are ever-changing and offer hypnotic appeal.

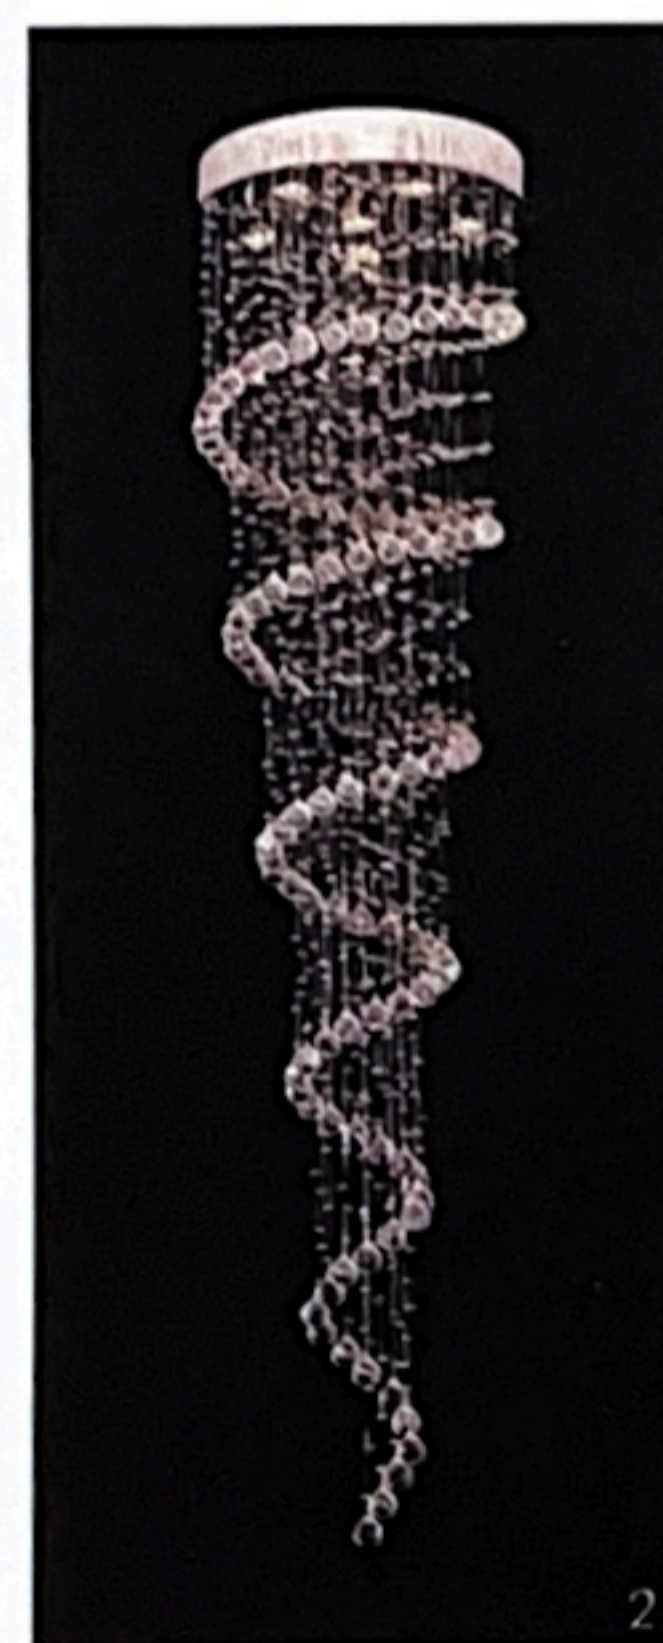

Visit michaelcurrymosaics.com or call 917-450-7733.

2 CENTURY DESIGN

Amazing and "breathtaking" are two terms that best describe Century Design's custom-made contemporary crystal chandeliers. Whether for residential or commercial use, these chandeliers convey a true sense of elegance and make a statement without saying a single word.

Visit centurydesignusa.com or call 408-464-3119.

3 RAGO ARTS & AUCTION CENTER

Rago Arts & Auction Center is an internationally known venue through which to buy and sell 20th-century designs. Free valuations for personal property, appraisals, and auction exhibitions in-house and online. 20th-Century Design at Auction: October 1-2, 2011. Preview online September 16, or September 24 in-house. Shown: Jacques Le Chevallier and Rene Koechlin's rare adjustable desk lamp, circa 1930, France. 11.75" h. x 5.25" w. x 6.75" d.

5 ORLEY & SHABAHANG

Orley & Shabahang elevates contemporary carpet weaving to the highest form of functional art. While implementing traditional artistic methods, Orley & Shabahang now designs and customizes its own collection of contemporary carpets—sure to be the antiques of the future.

Visit orleyshabahang.com or call 212-421-5800.

6 DEA LUCE LIGHTING

Organic, nature-inspired forms are a hallmark of Daniel Issak's handblown glass lighting range. The delicate Spermatozoi collection of wall and table lamps, sconces, pendants, and chandeliers lends mystery and drama to classical and contemporary interiors. Dea Luce offers both customized and bespoke lighting as well as a production range, at retail and to the trade.
